

Phil Board wins his first race and is rewarded with the Breydon Challenge Cup

On Sunday Race Officer Graham King assisted by John Wood set a downstream course for the first race into a light breeze and five Norfolk Dinghies took part. Sam Woodcock in Kelpie crewed by Sam Archer took the lead and won the three lap race after 37 minutes followed in second place by David Mackley in Lucifer and crewed by Olivia Archer. In third came Danny Tyrrell in Twinkle crewed by Bruce Thompson. On handicap the winner was Graham Hagger in Jimba crewed by Shirley Hagger, Woodcock dropped to second and in third it was Paul and Karen Armitage sailing Jane.

The second race was the Power Station Race for the coveted Breydon Challenge Cup. A running start brought six Norfolks to the line for the long run up towards Norwich. All boats remained close but Phil Board in Pixie crewed by Wendy Bush pulled ahead and rounded the top mark first. With a strengthening wind assisting in the beat back, Board held on to his lead closely followed by Olivia Archer in Lucifer crewed by David Mackley. Third place went to Tyrrell.
