

No wind for the first Sunday in 2025 at Frostbites

On the day planned for the Wells Sailing Club visit to the Club predictions of strong winds with rain and snow prompted officials to cancel the event. That was a good decision but for the wrong reasons! Race Officers Paul and Pat Tegerdine reluctantly started the first race for the three boats bothering to launch.

The three lap course starting on "A" line was painful to watch. There was so little wind that one boat retired. Sam Woodcock sailing B20 "Kelpie" crewed by Commodore Sam Archer won the race in 32 minutes with the course shortened to half a lap. In second place came David Mackley sailing B6 "Lucifer beyond repair" crewed by Olivia Archer.

The second race was abandoned due to a complete lack of wind.
