

Final departure from Frostbites until October

With very light wind conditions just two Norfolk Dinghies decided to make a start on the long race to Coldham Hall on Sunday. Stephen Ellingham as Officer of the Day set them off at 1113hrs on what was thought to be a beat. Taking an hour to reach Thorpe Ferry it was decided to finish the race before the flyover. Sam Woodcock in "Kelpie" crewed by Heather Drysdale finished first with Bernie Woodcock in Echo crewed by Jean Board 11 minutes later. Along with Phil Board's boat Pixie, the boats were towed through Bramerton to Surlingham Ferry for lunch.

With other members in support, a very pleasant meal was supplied and at 1430hrs the second leg to Coldham commenced. There was a little more breeze and the two boats both finished the race sailing all the way with Sam Woodcock winning in 48 minutes just 30 seconds ahead of Bernie Woodcock.

Combining the two legs for the Paul Pint Pot the winner was Sam Woodcock.
