

Windless day at Frostbites on Remembrance Sunday

After the two-minute silence in very quiet but atmospheric conditions, Race Officer Jamie Manners assisted by Steven Ford as timekeeper set a short course, with the start delayed until 11.30am in the hope of attracting a little breeze.

Only one round was completed as the ebbing tide got too strong to stem the flow.

Nevertheless, it was a close race with David Mackley in B6 “Lucifer beyond repair” and crewed by Olivia Archer winning by 12 seconds over second placed Sam Woodcock in B20 “Kelpie” crewed by Sam Archer.

7 seconds later came Danny Tyrell sailing B53 “Twinkle” crewed by Bruce Thompson.

These three boats finished within a minute of each other after sailing for forty minutes.
